January 1, 2009, Rose Bowl Game Information

The following Notice and Reminder of the January 1st Rose Bowl game was issued as a courtesy by the Rose Bowl Operating Committee (RBOC) to neighborhood associations and other interested parties. We are passing it along for your information.

LVAA's Safety Committee hopes to meet with the Pasadena police and RBOC representatives to discuss traffic and parking control prior to January 1. You can help by providing us with comments about problems you have experienced during the recent UCLA / USC game or last year's Rose Bowl game. We will share your issues in our upcoming discussions.

Please e-mail me as soon as possible at np7956755@aol.com with your comments. If you have neighbors who may not have received this email, please pass along the information.

Thanks, and Happy Holidays!

Norm Parker
President, LVAA

NOTICE AND REMINDER!

The Rose Bowl Game will be played on Thursday, January 1, 2009, and will be broadcast live on ABC at 2:10 pm PST. The 2009 Rose Bowl will feature Penn State University and the University of Southern California. Attendance for this event will exceed 90,000.

The United States Military will be performing flyovers for the 2009 Rose Bowl Game. There will also be a sky diving performance at the Rose Bowl Game. (Please be prepared for practice flyovers on the days preceding the event.) Please visit the Tournament of Roses website which lists the dates and times for other Tournament of Roses events: www.tournamentofroses.com

It is expected that vehicles will park on streets in the neighbor-hoods adjacent to the Rose Bowl on January 1st, due to the expected volume of passenger vehicles. Please be prepared for a high volume of traffic in the immediate Rose Bowl area and throughout the City of Pasadena beginning the day after Christmas and continuing through January 2, 2009. The parking shuttle service will be in effect for the Rose Bowl Game.
